71. Alembic's manufacture, sale, use, offer for sale, and/or importation of Alembic's ANDA Products that are the subject of ANDA No. 220639 will not infringe, either directly or indirectly, any valid and enforceable claim of the '936 Patent, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents.

72. Because Alembic has not infringed the '936 Patent, and will not infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the '936 Patent, Counterclaim Defendants are not entitled to any damages or any other relief from or against Alembic.

73. Alembic is entitled to a declaratory judgment that Alembic's ANDA Products that are the subject of ANDA No. 220639 have not infringed, do not infringe, and will not infringe, either directly or indirectly, any valid and enforceable claim of the '936 Patent, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents.

TENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Declaratory Judgment of Invalidity of the '936 Patent)

74. Alembic repeats, realleges, and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth herein, the preceding paragraphs of Alembic's Answer and Counterclaims.

75. The claims of the '936 Patent are invalid for failure to comply with one or more provisions of 35 U.S.C. § 100 et seq., including, but not limited to, §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112, and/or obviousness-type double patenting.

76. Because one or more claims of the '936 Patent are invalid, Counterclaim Defendants are not entitled to any damages or other relief from or against Alembic.

77. Alembic is entitled to a declaratory judgment that the claims of the '936 Patent are invalid.

DEMAND FOR JUDGMENT

WHEREFORE, Alembic respectfully prays that this Court enter judgment in its favor and grant the following relief:

A. A judgment dismissing the Complaint against Alembic with prejudice;

B. A judgment denying Counterclaim Defendants any of the relief they have requested in the Complaint against Alembic;

C. A judgment declaring that the claims of the Patents-in-Suit are invalid;

D. A judgment declaring that APL's submission of ANDA No. 220639 seeking approval to market Alembic's ANDA Products that are the subject of ANDA No. 220639 prior to the expiration of the Patents-in-Suit does not directly or indirectly infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the Patents-in-Suit either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents;

E. A judgment declaring that Alembic has not infringed, either directly or indirectly, any valid and enforceable claim of the Patents-in-Suit, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, and that Alembic's manufacture, sale, offer for sale, and/or importation of Alembic's ANDA Products that are the subject of ANDA No. 220639 would not infringe, either directly or indirectly, any valid and enforceable claim of the Patents-in-Suit, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents;

F. A judgment declaring that Counterclaim Defendants are entitled to no damages, interest, costs, or other relief (including injunctive relief) from or against Alembic for infringement of the Patents-in-Suit;

G. A judgment declaring this to be an exceptional case under 35 U.S.C. § 285 in Alembic's favor, and awarding Alembic its reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in defending this action under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and all other applicable statutes and rules in common law that would be appropriate, with pre-and post-judgment interest thereon;

H. Alembic's costs and expenses for defending this action; and

I. Such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
