FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

AMERICAN REGENT, INC.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

MSN LABORATORIES PRIVATE LIMITED
AND MSN PHARMACEUTICALS INC.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No.: 24-10674

DEFENDANTS MSN LABORATORIES PRIVATE LIMITED AND MSN
PHARMACEUTICALS INC.'S ANSWER TO COMPLAINT, AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSES, AND COUNTERCLAIMS

Defendants MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals Inc. (collectively "MSN" or "Defendants"), by and through their undersigned attorneys, respond to the Complaint filed by Plaintiff American Regent, Inc ("Plaintiff") as follows:

GENERAL DENIAL

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b)(3), MSN denies all allegations in Plaintiff's Complaint, except those expressly admitted below.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. MSN admits that Plaintiff's complaint appears to raise a patent infringement action arising under Title 35 of the United States Code and concerning the above-named defendants filing of ANDA No. 219580 with the FDA for approval of Plaintiff's Injectafer®, ferriccarboxymaltose injection prior to the expiration of United States Patent No. 7,754,702 ("the '702 patent"), MSN is without sufficient information or knowledge to admit or deny the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 1 and, therefore, denies them on this basis.

1) PARTIES

2. On information and belief, MSN admits Plaintiff American Regent Inc., ("American Regent") principal place of business. MSN is without sufficient information or knowledge to admit or deny the remaining allegations contained in this paragraph and, therefore, denies them on this basis.

5. MSN denies that Plaintiff is entitled to any of the relief requested in this paragraph of its Prayer for Relief or to any relief whatsoever.

DEFENDANTS' AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

MSN asserts the following defenses without prejudice to the denials in this Answer and without admitting any allegations of the Complaint not otherwise admitted. MSN does not assume the burden of proof on any such defenses, except as required by the applicable law with respect to the particular defense asserted. MSN reserves the right to assert other defenses and/or to supplement or amend its Answer and Affirmative Defenses to the Complaint upon discovery of facts or evidence rendering such action appropriate.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(No Direct Infringement)

MSN does not infringe, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, any valid and enforceable claims of the '702 patent, and if the products that are the subject of ANDA No. 219580 were marketed, MSN would not infringe, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, any valid and enforceable claims of '702 patent.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(No Indirect Infringement)

MSN has not induced or contributed to, and does not and will not induce or contribute to, the infringement, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, of any valid and enforceable claims of the '702 patent, and if the products that are the subject of ANDA No. 219580 were marketed, MSN would not induce or contribute to the infringement, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, of any valid and enforceable claims of the '702 patent

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Invalidity)

The claims of the '702 patent are invalid for failure to comply with one or more conditions for patentability set forth in one or more provisions of 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112, or under other judicially-created bases for invalidation.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Failure to State a Claim)

Plaintiff has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

DEFENDANT'S COUNTERCLAIMS

Pursuant to Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc., for their Counterclaims against Plaintiff American Regent Inc allege as follows:

MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. repeat and incorporate by reference each of the foregoing paragraphs of MSN's Answer and Affirmative Defenses to the Complaint.

THE PARTIES

6. MSN Laboratories Private Limited is a Private Limited company organized and existing under the laws of India, having a principal place of business at MSN House Plot No. C-24, Industrial Estate, Sanathnagar, Hyderabad - 18, Telangana, India.

7. MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, with a principal place of business at 20 Duke Road, Piscataway, NJ 08854.

8. Upon information and belief, American Regent Inc. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, with a principal place of business at 5 Ramsey Road, Shirley, New York 11967.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over these Counterclaims for declaratory judgment pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(3)(5); 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1337(a), 1338, 2201, 2202; and/or 21 U.S.C. § 355(j), based on an actual controversy between MSN

Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and Plaintiff arising under the Patent Laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. § 100 et seq.

10. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Plaintiff based, inter alia, on the filing by Plaintiff of this lawsuit in this jurisdiction.

11. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) and 1400(b), and 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(5)(c)(i)(II).

The '702 Patent

12. On information and belief, on July 13, 2010, the Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”) issued the '702 patent. The '702 patent lists, on its face, Mary Jane Helenek, Marc L. Tokars, and Richard P. Lawrence as inventors of the patent. On information and belief, Plaintiff American Regent Inc. is the assignee of the '702 patent.

13. According to the Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”) publication entitled “Approved Drug Products with Therapeutic Equivalence Evaluations” (known as “the Orange Book”), the '702 patent will expire on February 15, 2028.

THE APPLICATIONS AT ISSUE

The NDA

14. On information and belief, Plaintiff is the current holder of NDA No. 203565 for ferric carboxymaltose (“Injectafer NDA”), which Plaintiff markets and sells, directly or indirectly, under the trade name Injectafer® in the United States, including this judicial district.

15. On information and belief, the FDA approved NDA No. 203565 on July 25, 2013., which permitted Plaintiff to market and sell its ferric carboxymaltose in this judicial district and throughout the United States.

16. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff, as the NDA holder for Injectafer® (NDA No. 203565), filed requests with the FDA pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 355(b)(1) to list the '702 patent in the Orange Book for Injectafer®.

17. On information and belief, Plaintiff represented to the FDA that the claims of the '702 patent read on Plaintiff's Injectafer® product.

18. Plaintiff's maintenance of the '702 patent in the Orange Book means that it believes these patents "claims the drug for which the application was submitted [i.e., Injectafer®] and with respect to which a claim or patent infringement could reasonably be asserted if a person not licensed by the owner engaged in the manufacture, use, or sale of the drug." See 21 U.S.C. § 355(b)(1).

APPROVAL OF GENERIC DRUGS

19. When an ANDA is submitted to the FDA seeking permission to market a generic version of an approved NDA product, if there are no patents listed in the Orange Book for the corresponding NDA product, the ANDA must include a certification that no such patent information has been filed. 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(A)(vii)(I). This is known as a "Paragraph I Certification."

20. If, however, there are any patents listed in the Orange Book for the corresponding NDA, for each patent listed in the Orange Book for the relevant NDA product, the ANDA must include a certification for each patent stating (a) that the patent has expired (a “Paragraph II Certification”), (b) when the patent will expire (a “Paragraph III Certification”), or (c) that the patent is invalid or will not be infringed by the manufacture, use or sale of the ANDA product (a “Paragraph IV Certification” or “PIV Certification”). 21 U.S.C. §355 (j)(2)(A)(vii)(II)-(IV).

21. If the ANDA contains only Paragraph I Certification(s) and/or Paragraph II certification(s), the FDA may approve the ANDA immediately. 21 U.S.C. § 355 (j)(5)(B)(i).

22. If the ANDA contains Paragraph III Certifications and no PIV Certification, the FDA may approve the ANDA on the patent expiration date certified in the Paragraph III certification. 21 U.S.C. §355 (j)(5)(B)(ii).

23. If an ANDA contains one or more PIV Certifications, the ANDA applicant must provide notice of same to the NDA holder and owner(s) of the corresponding patent(s) and provide a “detailed statement of the factual and legal basis for the opinion that the patent is invalid or will not be infringed.” 21 U.S.C. §355 (j)(2)(B)(iv)(II).

24. If an ANDA containing a PIV Certification is the first such ANDA submitted, then, subject to other requirements, it can qualify for 180 days of generic exclusivity, during which the FDA will not make effective its approval of another ANDA product that is a generic version of the same NDA product as the first-to-file ANDA. 21 U.S.C. §355 (j)(5)(B)(iv).

25. The filing of a PIV Certification is treated under the patent law as an act of technical infringement that provides the brand company an opportunity to sue. See 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(2)(A). If the NDA holder brings a patent infringement suit within 45 days after it receives the notice of the PIV filing, the FDA's approval of the corresponding ANDA will automatically be stayed for 30 months, unless the patent litigation is resolved sooner. 21 U.S.C. §355 (j)(5)(B)(iii).

26. If an infringement action is brought against an ANDA applicant in response to receiving notice of a PIV Certification, the ANDA applicant may "assert a counterclaim seeking an order requiring the [NDA] holder to correct or delete the patent information submitted by the [NDA] holder." 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(5)(C)(ii)(I).

ANDA NO. 219580

27. MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. have filed an ANDA with the FDA seeking approval to market ferric carboxymaltose, ("ANDA Products"). As part of the application, MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. certified that their ANDA Products described in ANDA No. 219580 did not infringe the '702 patent, and/or that the '702 patent are invalid and/or unenforceable.

28. MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. provided notice of their certification with respect to the '702 patent to Plaintiff, which Plaintiff received on or about October 11, 2024. The notice provided the factual and legal bases as to why, in MSN's opinion, the '702 patent were invalid, unenforceable, and/or would not be infringed by the commercial manufacture, use, or sale of the ANDA Products before the expiration of the '702 patents. MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. also enclosed an Offer of Confidential Access to MSN's ANDA in accordance with 21 U.S.C. § 505(j)(5)(C)(i)(III).

29. Plaintiff's conduct impairs MSN's ability to market MSN's ANDA Products. MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. thus seek a declaratory judgment that their ANDA Products do not infringe the '702 patent and/or that these patents are invalid and/or unenforceable.

THE PRESENCE OF A CASE OF ACTUAL CONTROVERSY

30. By maintaining the Orange Book listing of the '702 patent in connection with Injectafer®, Plaintiff continues to represent that the '702 patent could reasonably be asserted against anyone making, using, or selling a generic sacubitril/valsartan product without a license from Plaintiff.

31. MSN Laboratories Private Limited's and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc.'s Paragraph IV certification states that the '702 patent is invalid, unenforceable, and/or will not be infringed by the manufacture, use, sale, and/or offer for sale of the ANDA Products.

32. Plaintiff's Complaint gives rise to an actual controversy with respect to the '702 patent with respect to ANDA No. 219580.

33. MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. have made, and will continue to make, substantial preparations in connection with their request for FDA approval of their ANDA Products.

34. To avoid legal uncertainty and to protect MSN's anticipated future investment in MSN's ANDA Products, MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. seek declaratory relief with respect to the '702 patent.

35. Upon FDA approval of MSN Laboratories Private Limited's and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc.'s ANDA, MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. will be able to market and sell their ANDA Products in the United States.

36. A judgment declaring that the '702 patent are invalid, unenforceable, and/or will not be infringed by the manufacture, use, sale, and/or offer for sale of MSN's ANDA Products will remove any independent barriers to competition that may exist by virtue of Plaintiff's maintenance of the listing of the '702 patent in the Orange Book in connection with NDA No. 203565.

37. The totality of circumstances support that a case or controversy exists with respect to the infringement, invalidity, and/or unenforceability of the '702 patent.

FIRST COUNT

(Declaratory Judgment of Non-Infringement of the '702 Patent)

38. MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. repeat and incorporate by reference each of the foregoing paragraphs of MSN's Answer and Affirmative Defenses to the Complaint and of these Counterclaims.

39. This Counterclaim arises under the Patent Laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., and the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202. An actual, substantial, and continuing justiciable controversy having adverse legal interest of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the issuance of a declaration of rights by this Court exists between Plaintiff and MSN concerning the infringement of the '702 patent.

40. The manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, and/or importation into the United States of MSN's ANDA Products pursuant to ANDA No. 219580 does not infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the '702 patent.

41. Thus, MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. are entitled to a declaration that the manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, and/or importation into the United States of MSN's ANDA Products do not infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the '702 patent.

SECOND COUNT

(Declaratory Judgment of Invalidity of the '702 Patent)

42. MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. repeat and incorporate by reference each of the foregoing paragraphs of MSN's Answer and Affirmative Defenses to the Complaint and of these Counterclaims.

43. This Counterclaim arises under the Patent Laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., and the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202. An actual, substantial, and continuing justiciable controversy having adverse legal interest of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the issuance of a declaration of rights by this Court exists between Plaintiff and MSN concerning the invalidity of claims of the '702 patent.

44. The claims of the '702 patent are invalid for failure to comply with the requirements of patentability as specified in 35 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq., including, without limitation, 35 U.S.C. §§ 102, 103, and/or 112, and/or based on other judicially-created bases for invalidation.

45. Thus, MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals, Inc. are entitled to a declaration that the claims of the '702 patent are invalid.

EXCEPTIONAL CASE

This case is an exceptional one, and MSN is entitled to an award of its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 35 U.S.C. § 285.

PRAYERS FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Defendants MSN Laboratories Private Limited and MSN Pharmaceuticals Inc. pray that the Court enter judgment in their favor and against Plaintiff Pharmaceuticals Corporation as follows:

- A. Declaring that the making, using, selling, offering for sale, marketing, or importation of MSN's ANDA Products described in ANDA No. 219580 do not infringe any valid or enforceable claim of the '702 patent;
- B. Declaring that the '702 patent and all of its claims are invalid;
- C. Declare that Plaintiff is not entitled to any relief under 35 U.S.C. §271(e)(4)(A) resetting MSN's FDA approval date.
- D. Declare that the '702 patent is not properly listed in the Orange Book for Injectafer®.
- E. Enjoining Plaintiff and its agents, representatives, attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with it who receive actual notice hereof, from threatening or initiating infringement litigation against MSN or its customers, dealers, or suppliers, or any prospective or present sellers, dealers, distributors, or customers of

MSN, or charging it either orally or in writing with infringement of any patent asserted herein against MSN;

F. Enjoining Plaintiff and its agents, representatives, attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with it who receive actual notice hereof, from interfering with FDA's approval of ANDA No. 219580;

G. Granting MSN judgment in its favor on Plaintiff's claims;

H. Denying Plaintiff's claims with prejudice;

I. Finding this case to be exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and awarding MSN its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees; and

J. Awarding any other such relief as is just and proper.
